J. H. Shelton Excellence in Teaching Award
2023-2024 Nomination Form

Name:_____Rank: _____

Department/Division/College:_____Years taught at College/University level: _____

Years at UNT: _____ Current teaching load: Lecture hours: _____ Lab hours: _____ Employee ID#: _____

Approximate number students: Undergraduate:_____   Graduate: _____

If a previous recipient of this award, year last award was received: _____

Last year's teaching load: Lecture Hours:_____   Lab Hours: _____

PAC submitting nomination:_____Contact person: _____
      >OR<
Printed names of minimum of 3 faculty members submitting nomination: _____

_____

Include in a single PDF to FacultySenateAwards@unt.edu:
1. Nomination form completed and signed by the award nominee, his/her chair, and the college dean.

2. A curriculum vitae that highlights teaching awards (received and/or nominated for), teaching-related research efforts, teaching innovations, new courses developed, courses taught, etc., providing clear evidence that the nominee has made excellent teaching contributions to the university.

3. A one-page statement of the nominee's teaching philosophy and perceptions of his/her teaching activities.

4. A tabulated summary of departmental teaching evaluations over the past five or more years which shows the nominee's relative standing in his/her department.

5. One year's worth of SPOT evaluations (the two most recent semesters)

6. Three letters of recommendation, including one from the nominee's Personnel Affairs Committee (PAC or LPAC) or any self-constituted ad hoc committee of three or more faculty members. A letter from the department chair or dean is optional but should be counted as one of the three letters.

_____   Date:_____
Nominee's Signature

_____   Date:_____
Printed Name and Signature of Department/Division Chair

_____   Date:_____
Printed Name and Signature of Dean

Shelton Award