- Graduate Scholarly Writing: Argumentative or Expository ($500)
- Undergraduate Creative Writing: Fiction ($325)
- Undergraduate Creative Writing: Nonfiction ($325)
- Undergraduate Creative Writing: Poetry ($325)
- Undergraduate Scholarly Writing: Argumentative or Expository ($325)

A complete nomination form must accompany each submission. A PDF including both documents must be sent to the Faculty Senate Office at FacultySenateAwards@unt.edu before 5:00 p.m. on Monday, February 18. Specific guidelines are below:

- The pieces submitted must have been written between January 1 and December 31, 2018.
- Professors must nominate students; however, students may ask to be nominated. Both the student and the nominating faculty member must sign the nomination form.
- Students must have been enrolled full time or part time during at least one long semester of the 2018 calendar year.
- English is the language of the competition. Occasional phrases in other languages are acceptable.
- Students may submit more than one piece in more than one category. Each submission may be as short as a single page and as long as 20 pages (not counting the Name and Title cover page). No submissions longer than 20 pages will be accepted.
- Each submission must be double-spaced, with 12-point Times New Roman font, 1-inch margins, a footer with the page number/s and title of the piece, and with the student's name and the title of each work on a separate Name and Title page (no identifying information should be on the other pages of the piece).
- Submissions must not have won previous awards and must not have been accepted for publication by a student or a professional journal.
- Students must own sole copyright of their work prior to submission. Students must not have contracted professionals to support the research, writing, and editing associated with the submission.
- Follow the complete submission guidelines which can be found at: <https://faculty senate.unt.edu/faculty-senate-awards>

Award recipients will be recognized at the Honors Day ceremony in April of 2019.
